

CS CREDIT UNION Board of Directors Board Nomination Form

Board Nomination Forms are due by April 8, 2019 for new applicants wishing to be considered for nomination to positions for the CS Credit Union Board of Directors. This is strictly a volunteer position and you will receive no compensation for serving on the Board of Directors. Turn the completed Board Nomination Form along with the Petition Form into the Board Nominating Committee. Each Board seat has a three year term.

Acknowledgement of Responsibilities and Expectations

Nominees for the Board should understand that you will be expected to:

1. Attend at least one meeting per month, which begins around 12:00 p.m. and generally lasts until 2:00 p.m. Meetings may run later than 2:00 p.m. on occasions.
2. Attend additional Board meetings, if necessary. Other time commitments will be required for committee assignments, special meetings, and Credit Union events, including but not limited to, Strategic Planning sessions, Volunteer Conferences, Annual Meeting, etc.
3. Take required training for new and existing Board members. This training will assist new members of the Board to understand the Credit Union industry, what their fiduciary responsibility is as a Board member, and assist with basic regulatory and financial understanding. This training will require your commitment of approximately 7-8 hours in a 12 month period and is usually completed online.

Because of the time commitment, all nominees should be sure that his/her work supervisor/manager understands what is involved with the position and the time commitment to the Credit Union and provide their approval for this commitment.
